Pope Benedict XVI

From the Saints

“Fraternal correction is not a reaction to the offense I have suffered but a being moved by love for my brother.”

St Augustine of Hippo

'The Word who is Life' Bishop Richard is to begin a series of consultations with the lay faithful and priests of the diocese from the autumn. This will involve meeting representatives from each parish and asking them to enter into dialogue with their communities. Entitled 'The Word Who is Life' the Bishop asks us to look to the future: The Bishop writes, "...in order for us to foster prayer, develop formation and ensure continuing mission, we must review our Diocesan and Parish life. This must be carried out at a time when the ratio of priests to people is changing. This will be challenging for all concerned and difficult decisions must be made."

Married priests – a solution to the vocations crisis? Caroline Farrow, formerly of Catholic Voices, will discuss the question as to whether a cessation of the requirement of celibacy might be a solution to the current 'shortage of priests.'
