Sunday Readings

1 Kings 19:4-8 "Strengthened by the food until he reached the mountain of God"

Psalm: TASTE AND SEE THAT THE LORD IS GOOD

Ephesians 4:30-5:2 "Follow Christ by loving as he loved you."

John 6:41-51 I am the living bread which has come down from heaven

Today's Gospel begins with a report that the Jews complained about Jesus' claims regarding his identity. They knew his family, and they knew he was the son of Joseph. They could not comprehend what Jesus meant when he said that he came down from heaven. Jesus responds to the complaints by saying that only those who are chosen by God will recognize him as the one that God sent. This is a recurring theme in John's Gospel, that God has chosen those who will have faith in Jesus

Patronal feast

Mass of St. TARCISIUS will be celebrated on Sunday 12th August. The actual feast day is on the 15th August on the feast of the Assumption.

Tarcisius was a twelve-year-old acolyte during one of the fierce Roman persecutions of the third century. Each day, from a secret meeting place in the catacombs where Christians gathered for Mass, a deacon would be sent to the prisons to carry the Eucharist to those Christians condemned to die. At one point, there was no deacon to send and so St. Tarcisius, an acolyte, was sent carrying the "Holy Mysteries" to those in prison.

On the way, he was stopped by boys his own age who were not Christians but knew him as a lover of games. He was asked to join their games, but this time he refused and the crowd of boys noticed that he was carrying something. Somehow, he was also recognized as a Christian, and the small gang of boys, anxious to view the Christian "Mysteries," became a mob and turned upon Tarcisius with fury. He went down under the blows, and it is believed that a fellow Christian drove off the mob and rescued the young acolyte.

The mangled body of Tarcisius was carried back to the catacombs, but the boy died on the way from his injuries. He was buried in the cemetery of St. Callistus, and his relics are claimed by the church of San Silvestro in Capite, Rome
