From the Catechism

On the day of Pentecost, the Holy Trinity is fully revealed. Since that day, the Kingdom announced by Christ has been open to those who believe in him: in the humility of the flesh and in faith, they already share in the communion of the Holy Trinity (Paragraph 732).

From the Saints

"If the Lord has left us ignorant of the ordering of many things in this world, then it means it is not necessary for us to know, we cannot compass all creation with our minds. But the Creator himself of heaven and earth and every created thing gives us to know him in the Holy Spirit" (St. Silouan the Athonite).

Prayer before Mass

Almighty eternal God, behold I come to the Sacrament of your only Begotten Son, Our Lord Jesus Christ, as one sick to the physician of life, as one unclean to the fountain of mercy, as one blind to the light of eternal brightness, as one poor and needy to the Lord of heaven and earth. I ask, therefore, for the abundance of your immense generosity, that you may graciously cure my sickness, wash away my defilement, give light to my blindness, enrich my poverty, clothe my nakedness, so that I may worthily receive the bread of Angels, the King of kings and Lord of lords. Amen.
