From 'Divine Renovation' by Fr James Mallon

How do we make disciples? If a disciple is one who learns, who yearns to grow, who hungers for knowledge, how does this happen? We know that just because someone 'believes' in Jesus or 'goes to church' does not necessarily mean they have this hunger. Something must happen to awaken this hunger, that something is evangelisation. To 'evangelise' means to announce the Good News, but what is this Good News? We can speak of the message of 'God with us', of God's mercy, of the defeat of death in the Resurrection. Ultimately, however, it is possible to simplify the message into one word – Jesus. To be evangelised is not only to hear these wonderful truths, to know about them, but to come to know him, to not just believe in him but to love him and be in love with him.

'Divine Renovation' is a book by Fr James Mallon to assist parishes in moving from a focus on 'maintenance' to a focus on 'mission'. The book seeks to offer ways in which a community of faith can renew their commitment to the 'great commission' given by Christ to his followers – to make disciples. The book is available on Amazon, and parishioners are encouraged to read it for themselves. During the Easter Season quotes from this publication will appear on the front of the newsletter.
