From the Catechism

Humility is the virtue by which a Christian acknowledges that God is the author of all good. Humility avoids inordinate ambition or pride, and provides the foundation for turning to God in prayer.

Paragraph 2559

From the Saints

“If humble souls are contradicted, they remain calm; if they are calumniated, they suffer with patience; if they are little esteemed, neglected, or forgotten, they consider that their due; if they are weighed down with occupations, they perform them cheerfully.”

St Vincent de Paul

Prayer before Mass

Almighty eternal God, behold I come to the Sacrament of your only Begotten Son, Our Lord Jesus Christ, as one sick to the physician of life, as one unclean to the fountain of mercy, as one blind to the light of eternal brightness, as one poor and needy to the Lord of heaven and earth. I ask, therefore, for the abundance of your immense generosity, that you may graciously cure my sickness, wash away my defilement, give light to my blindness, enrich my poverty, clothe my nakedness, so that I may worthily receive the bread of Angels, the King of kings and Lord of lords. Amen.

Through parish work, building up small Christian communities, working with the media, the Missionaries of Africa aim to work in partnership with the Church of Africa and above all else to help build up the leadership of the churches.
