From the Catechism

The movement of return to God, called conversion and repentance, entails sorrow for and abhorrence of sins committed, and the firm purpose of sinning no more in the future. Conversion touches the past and the future and is nourished by hope in God's mercy. Paragraph 1490

From the Saints

'Forgetting offences is a sign of sincere repentance. If you keep the memory of them, you may believe you have repented but you are like someone running in his sleep. Let no one consider it a minor defect, this darkness that often clouds the eyes even of spiritual people.' St. John Climacus

Prayer before Mass

Almighty eternal God, behold I come to the Sacrament of your only Begotten Son, Our Lord Jesus Christ, as one sick to the physician of life, as one unclean to the fountain of mercy, as one blind to the light of eternal brightness, as one poor and needy to the Lord of heaven and earth. I ask, therefore, for the abundance of your immense generosity, that you may graciously cure my sickness, wash away my defilement, give light to my blindness, enrich my poverty, clothe my nakedness, so that I may worthily receive the bread of Angels, the King of kings and Lord of lords. Amen.

Care Mass Sunday – 12th February at St Tarcisius -

The Church tries to make every effort to provide support to people with special needs. Children with behaviour/learning/physical difficulties are always welcome at our Masses – in fact they bring a very special quality of love to our celebrations. In the Woking Deanery we have occasional Masses, known as 'Care Masses' which are entirely geared to the requirements of those with special needs. You will be assured a warm welcome if you come and you might like to prepare a bidding prayer to be read at the Mass. Afterwards tea and refreshments will be served and all very welcome to attend.

Evening of East–West dialogue at St Hugh of Lincoln, Knaphill Monday 30th January 8pm. Father Athanasius McVay, a priest of the Ukrainian Greek Catholic Church will be in conversation with Father Alexander on a variety of subjects: the present situation in Ukraine; the ecclesial situation in Ukraine; the history and character of the Ukrainian Greek Catholic Church (an Eastern Church in communion with Rome, which numbers some 6 million members); the state of relations between Catholicism and Orthodoxy; the ways in which Latin Catholics can learn from their Greek brethren; and much else besides. All welcome.

Inclusion Course Available for Clergy and Parishioners interested in learning British Sign language and Liturgical Signs in order to Communicate with Deaf People in our Churches and Parishes. Please contact Margaret Fraher for more information 01293 651196 or margaret.fraher@dabnet.org
