Sunday Reading

Acts 5:12-16 The numbers of men and women who came to believe increased steadily

Psalm GIVE THANKS TO THE LORD FOR HE IS GOOD, FOR HIS LOVE HAS NO END

Revelation 1:9-13,17-19 I was dead and now I am to live for ever.

John 20:19-31 Thomas believes because he sees Jesus.

In today's Gospel, Jesus greets his disciples with the gift of peace and the gift of the Holy Spirit. Jesus also commissions his disciples to continue the work that he has begun. As Jesus was sent by God, so too does Jesus send his disciples. This continuity with Jesus' own mission is an essential element of the Church. Jesus grants the means to accomplish this mission when he gives his disciples the gift of the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit binds us together as a community of faith and strengthens us to bear witness to Jesus' Resurrection.

The Cardinal expressed 'deep dismay that those targeted and killed include Catholics gathering to celebrate the joy of Easter. They have a special place in our prayers. We remember in our prayers the Sri Lankan community in England and Wales, many of whom may well have direct connections with those caught up in these atrocities.' May the risen Lord strengthen all people in Sri Lanka, and nurture in them an unquenchable hope, both in the promise of heaven and in our capacity to contribute to the building of a peaceful society.'
