From the Catechism

The first announcement of the Eucharist divided the disciples, just as the announcement of the Passion scandalized them. The Eucharist and the Cross are stumbling blocks. "Will you also go away?" (John 6:67). The Lord's question echoes through the ages, as a loving invitation to discover that only he has the words of eternal life and that to receive in faith the gift of his Eucharist is to receive the Lord himself (paragraph 1336).

From the Saints

"So I will go to the altar of God. Here I lay myself with all my doings and troubles alongside the sacrifice on the altar. And when the Lord comes to me then in Holy Communion, then I may ask him, 'Lord, what do you want of me?' And after quiet dialogue, I will go to that which I see as my next duty" (St Teresa Benedicta of the Cross).

Prayer before Mass

Almighty eternal God, behold I come to the Sacrament of your only Begotten Son, Our Lord Jesus Christ, as one sick to the physician of life, as one unclean to the fountain of mercy, as one blind to the light of eternal brightness, as one poor and needy to the Lord of heaven and earth. I ask, therefore, for the abundance of your immense generosity, that you may graciously cure my sickness, wash away my defilement, give light to my blindness, enrich my poverty, clothe my nakedness, so that I may worthily receive the bread of Angels, the King of kings and Lord of lords. Amen.
