From 'Divine Renovation' by Fr James Mallon

"The first wave of evangelisation came from a realisation of the fulfilment of the Lord's promises on the day of Pentecost, a realisation that was more than conceptual, it was experiential and transformative. So, too, then will the New Evangelisation be fulfilled only by a new Pentecost. In spite of the centrality of the experience of the Holy Spirit in the early Church, today, amidst calls for renewal, rebirth and re-evangelisation, we continue to be more comfortable with the idea of the Holy Spirit rather than the experience of the Spirit who comes in power."

From the Saints

The Sacraments which Our Lord instituted would not have saved us without the Holy Spirit. Even the death of Our Lord would have been useless to us without Him. Therefore Our Lord said to His Apostles, "It is good for you that I should go away; for if I did not go, the Consoler would not come." The descent of the Holy Ghost was required, to render fruitful that harvest of graces. It is like a grain of wheat—you cast it into the ground; yes, but it must have sun and rain to make it grow and come into ear. We should say every morning, "O God, send me Thy Spirit to teach me what I am and what Thou art." St John Vianney

Prayer for Vocations to the Priesthood

"The harvest is rich, but the labourers are few"

Lord, grant to our Diocese the gift of priests filled with zeal for your Word, and with dedication in the service of your people, that your Church may be nourished through the Sacraments and strengthened for the Mission to which you have called us. For you are Lord for ever and ever. Amen
