From 'Divine Renovation' by Fr James Mallon

“Only a Church filled with an army of missionary disciples can change the world. One of the consequences of post-Vatican II clericalism was the juxtaposition of the clergy against the baptised, as if to speak of the uniqueness of the priestly vocation was to diminish the lay vocation, and as if to equip the laity for ministry was to threaten the role of the priest. St Paul is clear in his letter to the Ephesians - all the parts of the Body of Christ are necessary.”

From the Saints

“Let all priests remember that their priestly ministry is, in a special way, ‘ordered’ to the great solicitude of the Good Shepherd, solicitude for the salvation of every human being. The solicitude of every good shepherd is that all people ‘may have life and have it to the full,’ so that none of them may be lost, but should have eternal life. Let all of us priests endeavour to make this solicitude penetrate deeply into our souls, let us strive to live it. May it characterise our personality, and be at the foundation of our priestly identity.”

St John Paul II, Letter to All Priests
